Thank your staff for their efforts. Provide a practical Action Guide for improvement. Give them a simple method to spread good ideas. Get as many people involved as possible. Do this all in a very cost efficient training program called Prepare and Share.

We can also provide a personalized version for your city. We will send out our star photographer to include specific pictures of people in action and do a special printing just for you. We will include a message from the mayor or city manager.

NOTE: To encourage bulk rate orders, we will send you 1,000 books free of charge if you order at least 5,000 books before October 15, 2009. We truly believe that the more people involved the better.
